"I, hearing what it did for you.

"Your first guess was right," smiled "Suzzy Jim."

By your face gives proof, smiled a Sunny Jim.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

= WE =

Annual Paper Filed by His Honor With

City Clerk August.

Jayor Taylor has forwarded to City Clerk Ben T. August, his annual message and report, which will be presented to the Common Council at its regular monthly meeting next Monday night. The papers are sealed, and their contents will not be known until the seal has been broken. This will not occur before the meeting.

has been learned that, as usual, the report and message from Mayor Taylor is brief and to the point. It was rumored yesterday that the Chief Executive would refer in his message to the recent attempts at a municipal investigation and the work of the special grand jury which probed into alleged corruption.

It will be remembered that the final report of the grand jury, as given to the public, cast a reflection on two at the mayor, and it may be that he will take "crack" at the jurors in his annual message. This, however, is problematical.

Alabama Committee to Meet.

A full meeting of the Alabama Committee for the Constitutional Convention is requested for this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. James Drake, 1200 Floyd Avenue.
